

High Country Gateway -Trek 2005

Few outdoor experiences can compare with a long-term backpack in the Sierras, especially when the route is in Yosemite National Park. If you have older Scouts who have never taken one, this is their opportunity, under the guidance of an experienced adult Trek Leader from your High Adventure Team. Or, you and members of your Troop or Venturing Crew can participate together in this fantastic outdoor adventure. If you are new to High Adventure, take this trek to gain an understanding of what it involves and the experience and confidence to expand your Unit's program.

The trek begins at Log Cabin Wilderness Camp, the highest Scout Camp in America at 9600 feet, overlooking the scenic Mono Lake basin and only 12 miles from the eastern entry to Yosemite. After a day of instruction and acclimation, it's on the trail for a five-day, 30-mile backpack and learning experience. You conclude the trek back at Log Cabin, for a dip in the Jacuzzi. Only 14 persons can participate in this unique program, so register now. The memories will last a lifetime.
